Class Prophecy

May 20, 1970

Dear Mr. Andre,

It has been ten short years since you sent our little group out into the world. This is the meeting of our tenth anniversary. Since you were unable to be with us, we decided to write to you and let you know how the world has been treating us.

First of all, we would like to congratulate you on your being appointed Dean of Harvard and your marriage to one of Hollywood's most famous stars. We always wondered why you liked to go to California so well.

Clinton, as you probably read in the newspapers, was the first man on the moon. He has somehow escaped settling down. He is stationed in Paris now so surely one of those French models will capture his heart.

Judy, who was a secretary, is happily married now. The boss grew so attached to her sitting on his lap that he married her and took her home with him. Incidently, her boss was John Bearsford Tipton, the multi-millionaire.

Jim is now the head of the Ford Company. He became Edsel Ford's chauffer and when Edsel died, he left his entire fortune in Jim's capable hands. The '71 Ford will be known as the Wellington.

Sharon has been happily married for three years now. She married the heir to the King Ranch in Texas. Sharon always did like horses. Now she has all she needs and 285,000 acres to ride them in.

The head of our government's missile program is Gary Blackburn. When he isn't in orbit he draws cartoons for Walt Disney. Gary isn't married yet, but rumor has it, it won't be long.

The last three members are all located in Washington, D. C. Nancy is the head of International Interiors, an exclusive interior decorating establishment. She has decorated such famous abodes as Campobello, the White House, and the Cape Canaveral Blockhouse. Speaking of the White House, here we find the last two members of our inspiring class. President Smith was elected by the largest majority in the Presidential history. Confidentially, Gary isn't old enough to be President, but he lied about his age. Karen is busy keeping up with the Potomac Party Line. Incidently, she is the first First Lady to climb the White House flagpole. Remember, she was always athletic. There's been some changes made in the interior of the White House. The Red-room and the Green-room have been changed to the Pink-room and the Blue-room.

Well, that's all for now; hope to see you in 1980 at our next reunion.

Sincerely yours,

THE CLASS OF '60

Class Will

We, the seniors of Selma High School, in the year one thousand nine hundred sixty, in the city of Selma, county of Van Buren, state of Iowa, which is one of the states of the United States, on the continent of North America, on the planet Earth, being sound in mind and memory, do make, publish, and declare this our last Will and Testament, in manner and form as follows:

After our debts and funeral expenses are paid, we give to the faculty a much desired rest from their watchfulness over us.

To the junior class, we will Mr. Andre; our ability to get along with the underclassmen; our good typing grades; and the row of seats by the door.

To the sophomore class, we will our love of chemistry, our ability to have chaperoned parties, and the deck of hand-made cards--hidden in the vent in the home ec. room.

To the freshman class, we will our endurance to last the rest of your years of high school, our good-luck flag--hidden in the last window blind in the home ec. room, and our ability to chew gum in class.

To Mr. Andre, we will our brown file, complete with all the literature. (Be careful, it took us four years to collect all of it.)

To Mrs. Wilson, we will all of our paper-back pocketbooks.

To Mrs. Snider, we will anything which we have left behind in our typing books, our bookkeeping books, our shorthand books and our home ec. books.

To Mr. Slicker, we will three empty chairs in the band room.

To Mr. Kunzman, we will our unmarked chemistry books, our old knee guards, our gum--stuck to the bottom of the waste paper basket, and one pair of black shoe strings (which you have already received).

Clint wills his ability to make smart remarks in chemistry class to Loyal Fulton.

Gary B. wills his position as general manager of the magazine drive to Dennis.

Nancy wills her ability to shout in the halls to Esther.

Sharon wills her ability to cut her own hair to Floyd.

Judy wills some of her shyness to Carol.

Karen wills her basketball suit to Verna. (Better go out for basketball next year, Verna.)

Jim wills his ability to run the duplicator to Mrs. Snider. (Follow factory instructions for use of machine.)

Gary S. wills his old magazines to Glenn Tedrow.

Clinton wills his purple passion to Dyana and Gary C.

Gary B. wills his ability to make paper airplanes to Mike. (You can start taking lessons any day, Mike.)

Sharon wills her cowboy boots to Sarah and her love of horses to Darlene.

Nancy wills her love of Rebels to Betty.

Judy wills her typing ability to Kenny.

Karen wills her ability to pop gum to Betty and Marie. (Keep up the good work, girls.)

Jim wills his ability to get along with everyone no matter what is said or done to anyone who needs it.

Sharon and Nancy will their love of Fairfield to Carol and Betty. (You don't need much, do you Betty?)

Karen and Gary will their ability to go steady the last two years of high school to Juanita Metcalf and John Pool. --Remember now (just the last two).

To those remaining, we give all the rest and residue of our estate of other kind and character, including all our talents whatever they may be, to share in equal parts and share and share alike.

We hereby appoint and nominate the freshman class to be the executors of this, our Last Will and Testament, they to serve without bond.
